KOSI 101.1 TO PLAY CHRISTMAS MUSIC TOMORROW MORNING

DENVER, CO - Bonneville International Corporation's KOSI 101.1 Denver's official Christmas music station is bringing back Christmas music tomorrow morning from 6am to 10am on the Jenny & Jay Morning Show.

"We've had a lot of listeners contact us saying they are stressed with all that is going on and asking if we could play some Christmas music just for a bit to calm us down," said morning co-host, Jenny D. Jenny's co-host, Jay Cruze added, "We have also had calls from people who are putting their Christmas lights back up. So we felt, let's do our part since nothing lifts spirits like Christmas music."

Listeners to KOSI 101.1 will enjoy the classic holiday songs from Andy Williams, Bing Crosby, Frank Sinatra as well as contemporary holiday hits from Josh Groban, Maria Carey, and Michael Buble.

You can also stream KOSI 101.1 live at www.kosi101.com, on your smart speakers, or on the free KOSI 101.1 app.
